The State Agency for Refugees concludes a memorandum of cooperation with the National Commission for Combating Trafficking in Human Beings

The State Agency for Refugees under the Council of Ministers held a working meeting with the National Commission for Combating Trafficking and concluded a memorandum of cooperation for the early and timely identification of victims of trafficking.

Experts from the National Commission for Combating Trafficking in Human Beings presented the issues related to specific cases of women victims of trafficking and support provided by the Commission.

Both authorities agreed to seek opportunities for cooperation, particularly in the context of the regulatory changes related to international protection, the fight against human trafficking and the need to protect victims of trafficking.
