New digital tool supports integration into the labour market

A new digital platform, “Kam ďalej” (Where Next), was launched in Slovakia to support nationals and third-country nationals in navigating the labour market and finding better job opportunities. Developed by Mastercard, the IOM and Profesia.sk, the tool combines labour market data, cost-of-living information and practical guidance to help users make informed career decisions and align their skills with available opportunities.

Source(s)

- International Organization for Migration (24 March, 2026), [New digital tool helps people in Slovakia find pathways to better jobs], https://iom.sk/en/news-events/2323-new-digital-tool-helps-people-in-slovakia-find-pathways-to-better-jobs.html

Date of development
24.03.2026
Country
Slovakia
Thematic area(s)
Forms of protection, Content of protection, Integration, Digitalisation
Development type
Practice

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.