Ministry announces funding for English courses for third-country nationals

The Minister of State for Migration announced up to EUR 2 million AMIF funding for projects that aim to enhance the English language skills of third country nationals, including international protection applicants, beneficiaries of international protection and beneficiaries of temporary protection.

Organisations can apply for funding for projects specifically targeted at increasing English language skills, such as but not limited to:

- language training for diverse proficiency levels;
- workplace language training;
- bridging courses to address gaps between international qualifications and local standards;
- provision of English language acquisition programmes for parents of children attending primary and post-primary schools;
- provision of certified ESOL accreditation aligned to the Council of Europe's Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).
