The Finnish Immigration Service informs the backlog of applications for citizenship is being cleared

The Finnish Immigration Service informed that they are currently working on a backlog of applications for citizenship of approximately 17,600 applications pending. More resources have been allocated since December 2023, with the aim of the backlog to be cleared by the end of 2026.

Source(s)

- Finnish Immigration Service | Maahanmuuttovirasto (8 April, 2025), [Backlog of citizenship applications is being cleared], https://migri.fi/en/-/backlog-of-citizenship-applications-is-being-cleared

Date of development
08.04.2025
Country
Finland
Thematic area(s)
First instance determination, Assessment of applications, Content of protection, Forms of protection
Development type
Practice

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.