On the occasion of the Human Rights Day, Refugee Support Aegean published an updated overview of conditions in reception facilities across mainland Greece. According to the accompanying press release, the findings “highlight systematic gaps in shelter and living conditions, insufficient to non-existent access to essential services such as interpretation, transportation and social support for vulnerable individuals, an ongoing failure on the part of the state to provide the cash assistance required by law, and a lack of basic necessities”.

Source(s)

- Refugee Support Aegean (10 December, 2025), [Human Rights Day: The unseen reality of refugee camps in Greece], https://rsaegean.org/en/human-rights-day-the-unseen-reality-of-refugee-camps-in-greece/

Date of development
10.12.2025
Country
Greece
Thematic area(s)
Reception
Development type
Publication

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.
Document generated on 25-11-2026
For more information, please contact: ias@euaa.europa.eu