The National Institute for Justice organised a training for judges, jointly with UNHCR in Bulgaria, on the ‘EU Pact on Migration and Asylum – Procedural safeguards and qualification for international protection’. The training focused on the main changes introduced by the Pact, with emphasis on the new rules for the asylum procedures, the solidarity mechanism between Member States and procedural safeguards for asylum applicants. It also offered an opportunity for exchange of expertise and discussions on case law and EU law.

Source(s)

- National Institute of Justice | Национален институт на правосъдието (20 May, 2026), Националният институт на правосъдието проведе обучение по Пакта на ЕС за миграцията и убежището [The National Institute of Justice conducted training on the EU Pact on Migration and Asylum – National Institute of Justice], The National Institute of Justice conducted training on the EU Pact on Migration and Asylum – National Institute of Justice

Date of development
20.05.2026
Country
Bulgaria
Thematic area(s)
Second instance determination, Pact on Migration and Asylum
Development type
Practice

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.