The Federal Office for Migration and Refugees BAMF published a flyer with their key figures for the first six months of 2025 which provides an overview of the development of the numbers of asylum application, nationalities and a comparison of asylum applications with other European countries. It also provides more information on decisions and pending asylum procedures.

For the year 2024, there were a total of 259,945 asylum applications registered in Germany, which represents a decrease of 28.7% compared to 2023 (351,915 asylum applications).

In the first half of the year 2025, there were 72,818 asylum applications lodged.
