The Estonian Human Rights Centre and IOM offer free legal assistance on employment to Ukrainian nationals

The Estonian Human Rights Centre, in cooperation with IOM, is providing free employment counselling to displaced Ukrainian nationals who are suspected or confirmed victims of labour exploitation and/or human trafficking. The support includes legal assistance on employment contracts, as well as advice on preventing and responding to workplace exploitation. The counselling aims to strengthen access to rights and safeguards in the labour market for individuals at heightened risk of exploitation.

Source(s)

- Estonian Human Rights Centre | Eesti Inimõiguste Keskus (9 September, 2025), [The Human Rights Centre, in Cooperation with IOM, Offers Free Employment Counselling for Ukrainian Refugees], https://humanrights.ee/en/2025/09/inimoiguste-keskus-koostoos-iom-iga-pakub-tasuta-tooalast-noustamist-ukraina-pagulastele/

Date of development
09.09.2025
Country
Estonia
Thematic area(s)
Legal counselling, assistance and representation, Content of protection, Temporary Protection
Development type
Practice

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.