Government extends residence permits for displaced persons from Ukraine who have had collective protection for 4 years

The government announced that displaced persons from Ukraine who have had collective protection in Norway for 4 years will have their residence permit extended for a fifth year.

The government then circulated a proposal for consultation according to which newly-arrived Ukrainian men between the ages of 18 and 60 should no longer receive temporary collective protection.

Source(s)

- Government | Regjeringen (2 March, 2026), De først ankomne ukrainerne får oppholdstillatelsen forlenget igjen [The first Ukrainians to arrive will have their residence permits extended again], https://www.regjeringen.no/no/aktuelt/de-forst-ankomne-ukrainerne-far-oppholdstillatelsen-forlenget-igjen/id3150706/

Date of development
02.03.2026
Country
Norway
Thematic area(s)
Temporary Protection
Development type
Policy

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.