The Reception and Integration Agency provides services for applicant for international protection who have decided to live outside the reception system. Applicants may approach RIA:

- At the Vilnius Reception Center for consultations and assistance in finding employment, healthcare and state-guaranteed legal aid, qualification improvement or retraining, study issues, housing search, pre-school/pre-primary education issues, primary/basic/secondary/vocational education issues.
- To receive the payment of allowances of 10 and 60 percent of state-supported income for small expenses and food, if catering services are not provided.
- To receive state-guaranteed legal aid.
- To access the translation services provided by the administration information system "Vertis" created and implemented by RIA and order translation services in an understandable language.
- To have their vulnerabilities Identified.
- To receive information about organizations providing assistance to asylum seekers

Source(s)

- Reception and Integration Agency | Priėmimo ir Integracijos Agentūra (6 May, 2026), Informacija prieglobsčio prašytojams savarankiškai gyvenantiems savivaldybėse [Information for asylum seekers living independently in municipalities], https://piia.lrv.lt/lt/naujienos/informacija-prieglobscio-prasytojams-savarankiskai-gyvenantiems-savivaldybese-vWD/

Date of development
06.05.2026
Country
Lithuania
Thematic area(s)
Reception
Development type
Practice

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.