The King in Council appoints new UNE board chairs

Five new board chairs were appointed to the Immigration Appeals Board (UNE) by the King in Council. Board chairs play a key role in handling appeals: they may decide cases themselves after preparation by the UNE secretariat or refer cases to a board meeting with two independent members. The position requires judicial qualifications and carries responsibilities similar to those of a judge. Board chairs act as independent decision-makers and cannot be instructed by UNE management.

Source(s)

- Immigration Appeals Board | Utlendingsnemnda (6 February, 2026), UNE styrkes med fem nye nemndledere [UNE strengthened with five new board chairs], https://www.une.no/aktuelt/arkiv/2026/une-styrkes-med-fem-nye-nemndledere/

Date of development
06.02.2026
Country
Norway
Thematic area(s)
Second instance determination
Development type
Institutional

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.