Swedish Migration Agency publishes a report on voluntary repatriation

The SMA published a report analysing voluntary repatriation, which shows that information efforts have contributed to increase awareness about the procedure and, consequently, the submission of more applications for voluntary repatriation. The report highlights the importance of strengthening cooperation with other organisations involved, such as the IOM and UNHCR, and notes that financial support is not sufficient and information, qualified advice and support before and after departure are key in the process.

Source(s)

- Swedish Migration Agency | Migrationsverket (30 September, 2026), Migrationsverket fortsätter stärka samverkan vid frivillig återvandring [The Swedish Migration Board continues to strengthen cooperation in voluntary repatriation.], https://www.migrationsverket.se/nyhetsarkiv/nyhetsarkiv/2026-09-30-migrationsverket-fortsatter-starka-samverkan-vid-frivillig-atervandring.html

Date of development
30.09.2026
Country
Sweden
Thematic area(s)
Return
Development type
Publication

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.