In July 2026, the Greek Forum of Refugees introduced a new mobile application that brings together information on protection, support and inclusion services across Greece. The app was been designed for unaccompanied children, young adults and professionals working in the field of protection, and users can search for services by category and location. The content is available in seven languages.

More information is available here.

Source(s)

- Greek Forum of Refugees | Ελληνικό Φόρουμ Προσφύγων (14 July, 2026), [Greek Forum of Refugees introduces information app on protection, support, and inclusion services in Greece], https://refugees.gr/new-app-pixida/

Date of development
14.07.2026
Country
Greece
Thematic area(s)
General asylum and migration development, Information provision
Development type
Practice

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.