The police return 295 former asylum seekers with a final rejection in 2025

The police deported a total of 2,388 persons without legal residence from Norway in 2025. Of these, 295 (12%) were former asylum seekers with a final rejection. This is an increase compared to 2024, where 236 people in this category were returned. 517 people (22%) were people subjected to a Dublin transfer/safe third country. 77 individuals (3%) were already granted international protection in another country.

The largest groups among third-country nationals were citizens of Ukraine, Colombia, Russia, Syria, China and Afghanistan.
