UDI is offering NOK 1 million in grants for projects that inform people without legal residence about assisted return, specifically targeting those living outside asylum reception centres.

Non-profit organisations, individuals, and non-profit enterprises can apply for the grant. Public agencies, municipalities, companies, commercial actors, or operators of asylum reception centres cannot receive grants.

The UDI places emphasis on measures that have the greatest potential to promote assisted return

The deadline is 1 December 2025
