The Federal Minister of the Interior, Alexander Dobrindt, extended temporary internal border controls for another 6 months beyond 15 March 2026. A notification is currently being sent to the European Commission.

Shortly after entering into office, Minister Dobrindt ordered increased controls at all nine German internal borders with neighboring countries. The aim of the measures is to ensure long-term political and social stability in Germany and to take decisive action against smuggling and trafficking.

Source(s)

- Federal Ministry of the Interior | Bundesministerium des Innern (16 February, 2026), Grenzkontrollen verlängert [Extension of border controls], https://www.bmi.bund.de/SharedDocs/kurzmeldungen/DE/2026/02/grenzkontrollen.html

Date of development
16.02.2026
Country
Germany
Thematic area(s)
Access to procedures and non-refoulement, Access to territory, Victims of trafficking
Development type
Practice

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.