Refugee Support Aegean reports issues with access to asylum in Attica

Refugee Support Aegean (RSA) reported in October 2026 of incidents of people approaching Greek authorities to seek asylum being arrested and prosecuted. In addition, the organisation reported that the online platform of the Ministry of Migration and Asylum has been out of operation since June 2026.

More information is available here.

Source(s)

- Refugee Support Aegean (7 October, 2026), [People seeking protection end up behind bars: No access to asylum in Attica], https://rsaegean.org/en/people-seeking-protection-end-up-behind-bars-no-access-to-asylum-in-attica/

Date of development
07.10.2026
Country
Greece
Thematic area(s)
Access to procedures and non-refoulement
Development type
Policy

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.