OFPRA publishes cohort study on applications for international protection

The French Office for the Protection of Refugees and Stateless Persons (OFPRA) published the results of its cohort study examining the pathways of applicants who submitted their application in 2021.

The publication analyses the final outcome of applications once all avenues of appeal have been exhausted, thereby providing a comprehensive overview of the asylum processes for a 5-year reference period.

Source(s)

- French Office for the Protection of Refugees and Stateless Persons | Office français de protection des réfugiés et apatrides (21 May, 2026), Bilan de la demande de protection internationale - Étude de cohorte 2021 [Overview of applications for international protection – 2021 cohort study], https://www.ofpra.gouv.fr/actualites/bilan-de-la-demande-de-protection-internationale-etude-de-cohorte-2021

Date of development
21.05.2026
Country
France
Thematic area(s)
General asylum and migration development
Development type
Publication

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.