Netherlands and Greece agree on solidarity mechanism and the transfer of asylum seekers to Greece

The Minister for Asylum and Migration made an agreement with his Greek counterpart which will result in the Netherlands having to contribute less financially to the solidarity mechanism by processing asylum requests which are the responsibility of Greece. Additionally, it was agreed that the Netherlands can start returning asylum seekers to Greece under the Dublin III Regulation.

Source(s)

- Government | Rijksoverheid (14 January, 2026), Minister Van Weel versterkt migratiesamenwerking met Griekenland [Minister Van Weel strengthens migration cooperation with Greece], https://www.rijksoverheid.nl/actueel/nieuws/2026/01/14/minister-van-weel-versterkt-migratiesamenwerking-met-griekenland

Date of development
14.01.2026
Country
Netherlands
Thematic area(s)
Responsibility determination, Pact on Migration and Asylum, Asylum Migration Management Regulation
Development type
Practice

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.