Refugee Support Aegean and PRO ASYL publish submission about alleged pushbacks

In September 2026, Refugee Support Aegean and PRO ASYL published their submission to the Council of Europe's Committee of Ministers in A.R.E. v Greece, which was set to examine whether the Greek authorities have taken sufficient measures to address alleged pushbacks and to ensure that complaints are effectively investigated by the justice system. According to the submission, no substantive change has taken place, with reported pushbacks not being properly investigated and no measures proposed by the government to increase the effectiveness of relevant criminal investigations.

More information is available here.

Source(s)

- Refugee Support Aegean (15 September, 2026), [RSA and PRO ASYL submission to the Council of Europe Committee of Ministers in A.R.E. v. Greece], https://rsaegean.org/en/pushbacks-persist-investigations-remain-ineffective/

Date of development
15.09.2026
Country
Greece
Thematic area(s)
Access to procedures and non-refoulement
Development type
Policy

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.