UNHCR visits the Office of Citizenship and Migration Affairs to discuss asylum issues

On 18 September, UNHCR representatives visited Latvia to discuss developments in temporary protection, asylum, and integration, and to strengthen cooperation with national institutions and partners. The delegation, which met with governmental bodies, NGOs, and the diplomatic community, reviewed current trends, shared updates from UNHCR's Riga office, and discussed practical solutions for refugee support and future cooperation. The visit underscored strong Latvia–UNHCR collaboration and the importance of coordinated efforts for effective assistance.
