Ombudsperson visits the National Police Immigration Centre in Trandum

The Ombudsperson visited the National Police Immigration Centre in Trandum on 23–25 November 2025. The aim of the investigation was to uncover whether there was a risk of inhuman or degrading treatment of the detainees. The visit included inspections, interviews and a review of documents. The immigration detention centre was not previously notified of the time of the visit. The Ombudsperson will then prepare a report which will contain descriptions of findings uncovered during the visit and relevant recommendations.
