The Ministry of Labour and Social Inclusion reports that 48% of working-age displaced persons from Ukraine are currently employed. They mostly work in health and social services, wholesale and retail trade, repair of motor vehicles, accommodation and food service activities, and manufacturing.

All the country's municipalities have settled displaced people from Ukraine since 2022. Troms is currently the county with the highest proportion of Ukrainians aged 20–66 in employment.

Source(s)

- Ministry of Labour and Social Inclusion | Arbeids- og inkluderingsdepartementet (25 August, 2026), Halvparten av ukrainerne er i jobb [Half of Ukrainians are in work], https://www.regjeringen.no/no/aktuelt/ukrainere-i-jobb/id3171316/

Date of development
25.08.2026
Country
Norway
Thematic area(s)
Integration, Temporary Protection
Development type
Practice

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.