SAR Chairman reiterates the need to protect children in the asylum procedure

The Chairman of the State Agency for Refugees attended the scientific-practical conference "Refugees and Asylum Seekers in Bulgaria", organised in partnership with the National Network for Children, the State Agency for Refugees and the University of National and World Economy. He emphasised that the Pact on Migration and Asylum constitutes an important step in joining efforts of all stakeholders to increase the effectiveness of the asylum system and to protect the most vulnerable, particularly children.
