Administrative Instruction related to the administrative appeal following the entering into application of the Pact

Administrative Instructions related to the administrative appeal (recurso de reposición) in the field of international protection were approved to comply with the APR.

The new Instruction establishes the non-suspensive effect of the appeal against a negative decision of international protection and the clarifies that the time limit for bringing judicial proceedings before the National High Court (Audiencia Nacional) begin to run immediately upon notification of the decision rejecting international protection.
