Suspension of processing of applications by Syrian applicants at least until the end of July 2025

The Office of the Commissioner General for Refugees and Stateless Persons extends the suspensions of processing applications by Syrian applicants at least until the end of July 2025.

The suspension has been in place since 9 December 2024. Interviews and decisions for persons with a protection status in another Member State continued, but all other decisions have been suspended.

The suspension remains in place at least until the end of July 2025.
