

BAMF publishes brochure with key figures in asylum for 2025

The Federal Office for Migration and Refugees (BAMF) published an overview of the latest data on asylum applications, the nationalities with the highest number of applications and a comparison of asylum applications in European countries. It also provides information on decisions and pending asylum cases. The flyer is available here in German.

BAMF also published its annual asylum statistics for 2025. Germany registered a total of 168,543 asylum applications in 2025 comprising 113,236 first applications and 55,307 secondary applications. This represents a decrease of 50.7% compared to 2024 (total of 229,751 first applications). More information about the annual statistics is available here on the BAMF website.
