"HERMES-2025" preparedness exercise to enhance operational preparedness in emergency situations

The first part of the "HERMES-2025" preparedness exercises, conducted by the Reception and Identification Service of the General Secretariat for the Reception of Asylum Seekers of the Ministry of Immigration and Asylum, has been completed, in the context of enhancing operational preparedness and coordination of all involved bodies to address emergency situations.

The exercises aim to test existing civil protection plans and improve personnel training in real simulation conditions.
