OPU files three constitutional complaints for detention

In 2025, the Organisation for Aid to Refugees (OPU) in cooperation with the Human Rights Forum and the Matiaško law firm, has filed a total of three constitutional complaints regarding the detention of children in the context of asylum.

Source(s)

- Organisation for Aid to Refugees | Organizace pro pomoc uprchlíkům (10 July, 2025), Na Ústavní soud míří tři stížnosti OPU ve věci zajišťování dětí, mohou redefinovat zákon i praxi [Three complaints from the OPU regarding child detention are being filed with the Constitutional Court, they could redefine the law and practice], https://www.opu.cz/tiskova-zprava/na-ustavni-soud-miri-tri-stiznosti-opu-ve-veci-zajistovani-deti-mohou-redefinovat-zakon-i-praxi/

Date of development
10.07.2025
Country
Czechia
Thematic area(s)
Detention, Applicants with special needs
Development type
Jurisprudence

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.