FRA report calls for effective fundamental rights assessment of high-risk AI

Drawing on interviews with providers, deployers and experts, a new report from the EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA) reveals that many in the field of high-risk AI systems do not know how to systematically assess or mitigate these risks. Strengthening awareness and rights-compliant implementation of the AI act is key to protecting people's rights while enabling innovation and creating legal certainty for businesses.

Source(s)

- European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights (4 December, 2025), [Assessing high-risk artificial intelligence], https://fra.europa.eu/en/publication/2025/assessing-high-risk-ai

Date of development
04.12.2025
Country
European Union
Thematic area(s)
General asylum and migration development, Digitalisation
Development type
Publication

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.