UNHCR publishes report on experiences of asylum seekers and beneficiaries of temporary protection

A recent comparative report published by UNHCR provides information on the perspectives of refugees and asylum seekers in Bulgaria, compared to experiences of people displaced from Ukraine who are beneficiaries of temporary protection. The report finds that Ukrainians have in general easier access to services, while people from other countries face persistent barriers and difficulties due to language barriers, insufficient information on asylum procedures and family reunification, and limited integration opportunities.

Source(s)

- United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (15 October, 2025), [Bulgaria - UNHCR Participatory Assessment Report 2024], https://data.unhcr.org/en/documents/details/119172

Date of development
15.10.2025
Country
Bulgaria
Thematic area(s)
Content of protection, Integration, Temporary Protection
Development type
Publication

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.