

Croatian Law Centre provides legal counselling on international protection at reception centres

On 31 October 2025, the Croatian Law Centre launched the project “Legal Counselling in the Procedure for Granting International Protection”, financed by the EU’s Asylum, Migration and Integration Fund (AMIF). The project was presented on 26-27 January 2026 at reception centres in Zagreb and Kutina, in the first of three planned project presentations. During the sessions, individual and group legal counselling was provided with the assistance of interpreters in Arabic, Turkish, Farsi and Russian.
