

Government extends residence permits for displaced persons from Ukraine who have had collective protection for 4 years zzzzzz

The government announced that displaced persons from Ukraine who have had collective protection in Norway for 4 years will have their residence permit extended for a fifth year.

The government then circulated a proposal for consultation according to which newly-arrived Ukrainian men between the ages of 18 and 60 should no longer receive temporary collective protection.

Source(s)

- Government | Regjeringen (2 March, 2026), De først ankomne ukrainerne får oppholdstillatelsen forlenget igjen [The first Ukrainians to arrive will have their residence permits extended again], <https://www.regjeringen.no/no/aktuelt/de-forst-ankomne-ukrainerne-far-oppholdstillatelsen-forlenget-igjen/id3150706/>

Date of development

02.03.2026

Country

Norway

Thematic area(s)

Temporary Protection

Development type

Policy