UDI reduces reception capacity for unaccompanied minors

The Norwegian Directorate of Immigration (UDI) reduced reception capacity for unaccompanied minors due to a decline in arrivals and accommodation needs.

Five reception centres in Central and Northern Norway will close by 19 July 2026:

- Hamnsund EMA (RKM) – 25 places
- Søre Sunnmøre EMA (RKM) – 25 places
- Ørskog EMA (RKM) – 25 places
- Leirfjord EMA (RKN) – 25 places
- Heimly EMA (RKN) – 25 places

An additional 45 places will be phased out across several centres in multiple regions by 19 June 2026:

- Hå asylum reception centre for unaccompanied minors – basic (RKV, Hero) – 5 places
- Lista asylum reception centre for unaccompanied minors – basic (RKS, Hero) – 5 places
- Litlabø asylum reception centre for unaccompanied minors – basic (RKV, Hero) – 5 places
- Lyngdal, Solsiden asylum reception centre for unaccompanied minors – basic (RKS, Hero) – 5 places
- Sunndal asylum reception centre for unaccompanied minors – basic (RKM, Hero) – 5 places
- Rjukan asylum reception centre for unaccompanied minors – basic (RKS, Hero) – 5 places
- Sjøvegan asylum reception centre for unaccompanied minors – basic (RKN, Hero) – 5 places
- Tambartun asylum reception centre for unaccompanied minors – basic (RKM, Hero) – 5 places
- Fosnavåg asylum reception centre for unaccompanied minors – basic (RKM, Hero) – 5 places

Source(s)

- Norwegian Directorate of Immigration | Utlendingsdirektoratet (24 March, 2026), Reduserer antall plasser for enslige mindreårige [Reducing the © European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.

number of places for unaccompanied minors], https://www.udi.no/aktuelt/reduserer-antall-plasser-for-enslige-mindrearige/

Date of development
24.03.2026
Country
Norway
Thematic area(s)
Reception, Unaccompanied minors
Development type
Practice

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.