Government proposes to grant trade union representatives the right to nominate candidates for the resettlement refugee quota

The government circulated a proposal for consultation to give trade union representatives a specific right to nominate candidates for the resettlement refugee quota. The proposal would introduce a new provision in the Immigration Regulations under Section 7-6(f).

The consultation deadline is 12 June 2026.

Source(s)

- Government | Regjeringen (30 April, 2026), Fagforeninger bør gis forslagsrett for overføringsflyktninger [Trade unions should be given the right to make proposals for resettlement refugees], https://www.regjeringen.no/no/aktuelt/fagforeninger-bor-gis-forslagsrett-for-overforingsflyktninger/id3158202/

Date of development
30.04.2026
Country
Norway
Thematic area(s)
Resettlement and humanitarian admission
Development type
Legislation

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.