The SAR successfully resettles two Syrian families and accommodates them in the municipality of Burgas

In the context of its commitment on the EU resettlement program for third-country nationals, Bulgaria planned to resettle up to 25 persons within the framework of the effective resettlement project, funded under AMIF 2021-2027.

Under this project, the State Agency for Refugees under the Council of Ministers announced to have resettled two Syrian families who were also supported with accommodation within the municipality of Burgas.
