Senate to start the consultation process on the bill for implementation of the Pact

Discussion of the legislative proposal " Provisions on immigration and international protection, as well as provisions for the implementation of the European Union Pact on Migration and Asylum of 14 May 2024 ," approved by the Council of Ministers on 11 February , began yesterday in the Senate Constitutional Affairs Committee . After the rapporteur explained the bill's contents, the Committee decided to hold a series of hearings.

The majority and opposition have until 26 May to indicate the parties to be heard. Meanwhile, the Research Services of the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies have prepared a dossier on the bill .
