Reception and Integration Agency publishes information for applicants living outside the reception system

The Reception and Integration Agency provides services for applicant for international protection who have decided to live outside the reception system. Applicants may approach RIA:

- At the Vilnius Reception Center for consultations and assistance in finding employment, healthcare and state-guaranteed legal aid, qualification improvement or retraining, study issues, housing search, pre-school/pre-primary education issues, primary/basic/secondary/vocational education issues.
- To receive the payment of allowances of 10 and 60 percent of state-supported income for small expenses and food, if catering services are not provided.
- To receive state-guaranteed legal aid.
- To access the translation services provided by the administration information system "Vertis" created and implemented by RIA and order translation services in an understandable language.
- To have their vulnerabilities Identified.
- To receive information about organizations providing assistance to asylum seekers

Source(s)

- Reception and Integration Agency | Priėmimo ir Integracijos Agentūra (6 May, 2026), Informacija prieglobsčio prašytojams savarankiškai gyvenantiems savivaldybėse [Information for asylum seekers living independently in municipalities], https://piia.lrv.lt/lt/naujienos/informacija-prieglobscio-prasytojams-savarankiskai-gyvenantiems-savivaldybese-vWD/

Date of development
06.05.2026
Country
Lithuania
Thematic area(s)
Reception

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.

Development type
Practice

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.