

The Foundation for Access to Rights – FAR announced that they contributed to the EUAA monitoring exercise concerning the practical implementation of the Common European Asylum System in the Republic of Bulgaria.

Based on their expertise, the organisation contributed with findings on the five criteria identified by EUAA as particularly relevant for the organisation's work: 1) accessible free legal counselling and free legal assistance and representation; 2) timely and effective information provision and access to information (asylum procedure and reception); 3) timely and effective information provision and access to information (asylum procedure and reception); 4) timely and effective information provision and access to information (asylum procedure and reception) and 5) timely and effective access to essential rights and services.

Source(s)

- Foundation for Access to Rights | Фондация за достъп до права (1 September, 2026), [Contribution to the EUAA Monitoring Exercise in Bulgaria],
<https://farbg.eu/sites/default/files/publications/files/Contribution%20to%20the%20EU%20>

Date of development

01.09.2026

Country

Bulgaria

Thematic area(s)

First instance determination, Legal assistance and representation, Information provision

Development type

Publication