Deputy Minister of Migration and Asylum calls on EU Member States to regain control of migration

In view of the Greek Presidency of the Council of the EU in the second half of 2027, the Greek Deputy Minister of Migration and Asylum participated in an event in Brussels co-organised by the Permanent Representation of Greece and the General Secretariat for Vulnerable Citizens and Institutional Protection of the Ministry of Migration and Asylum. The title of the event was “The New Pact on Migration and Asylum and the Protection of Vulnerable Persons: Strengthening European Cooperation in View of the 2027 Greek Presidency”.

In her intervention, the Deputy Minister highlighted the need for effective implementation of the new European Pact on Migration and Asylum, with strong protection of external borders, shared European responsibility and substantial care for vulnerable people. She also referred to the need to utilise European financial instruments with specific objectives and measurable results, and to strengthen operational cooperation between Member States, European organisations and national authorities.
