Council of ministries adopts national plan against trafficking and serious exploitation

Upon a proposal from the Minister for Family and Equal Opportunities and the Minister of the Interior, the Council of Ministers adopted the National Plan against Trafficking and Serious Exploitation of Human Beings 2026-2028 in November 2026. The plan was developed by the National Anti-Trafficking Coordinator with the contribution of the Technical Committee. It defines the national strategy to prevent and combat trafficking and protect victims along four axes of intervention: prevention , prosecution of crimes, protection and assistance of victims, and cooperation .

Among the objectives:

- timely identification of victims;
- specific protection measures for vulnerable persons, including minors, women, and persons with disabilities;
- strengthening investigative and judicial action, including with respect to the use of digital technologies by criminal organisations;
- and developing cooperation with the victims' countries of origin and transit .
