

FRA presents updated guidance on fundamental rights monitoring mechanisms in asylum and screening procedures zzzzzz

On 27 March , FRA (European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights) presented its updated guidance to the EU Council's Asylum Working Party on establishing national independent mechanisms to monitor fundamental rights compliance during screening and asylum border procedures.

The presentation contributed to discussions on how to implement this requirement, which is part of the Screening and Asylum Procedure Regulations. Additionally, FRA highlighted its ongoing work on developing a common methodology for monitoring fundamental rights compliance under the EU Pact.

Source(s)

- European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights (24 April, 2025), [Updated guidance on national fundamental rights monitoring presented to EU Council asylum working group], <https://fra.europa.eu/en/news/2025/updated-guidance-national-fundamental-rights-monitoring-presented-eu-council-asylum>

Date of development

24.04.2025

Country

European Union

Thematic area(s)

General asylum and migration development, Access to procedures and non-refoulement, Access to territory, Pact on Migration and Asylum, Screening Regulation

Development type

Publication