New arrangement for asylum seekers' accommodation from March 1

On March 1, 2025, amended laws will come into force, meaning that all new asylum seekers will be allocated a place in one of the Swedish Migration Board's asylum accommodation facilities. In order to be entitled to financial support in the form of daily allowance and special allowance, the asylum seeker needs to move into and live in the accommodation that has been allocated.

Source(s)

- Swedish Migration Agency | Migrationsverket (28 February, 2025), Ny ordning för asylsökandes boende från 1 mars [New arrangement for asylum seekers' accommodation from 1 March], https://www.migrationsverket.se/nyhetsarkiv/nyhetsarkiv/2025-02-28-ny-ordning-for-asylsokandes-boende-fran-1-mars.html

Date of development
28.02.2025
Country
Sweden
Thematic area(s)
Reception, Accommodation
Development type
Legislation

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.