Ministry publishes report on the international protection system in Spain

The Ministry of Inclusion, Social Security and Migration published a report on the international protection reception system in Spain. The report provides an in-depth analysis of the context and data of a system that has strengthened its response capacity following each new humanitarian crisis. It highlights that the number of places available under the reception system has increased 18 times in the last 10 years, with approximately 32,000 additional places.

The report includes information up to June 2025 and is available here.
