EU Member States agree to extend temporary protection for displaced persons from Ukraine until March 2027

The Council voiced its unanimous support for a proposal to extend the temporary protection for the more than 4 million Ukrainians fleeing from Russia's war of aggression until 4 March 2027.

Key extracts of the Press Release of the Council of the EU:

"Today, the Council voiced its unanimous support for a proposal to extend the temporary protection for the more than 4 million Ukrainians fleeing from Russia's war of aggression until 4 March 2027….
… In addition to the extension of temporary protection, Member States are discussing a Council recommendation to prepare for a coordinated transition out of temporary protection (exit strategy from the temporary protection). The recommendation will address matters such as switching to other legal (residence) statuses, paving the way for a gradual return to Ukraine and stepping up the provision of information about available options."

Next steps: The Council will formally adopt the decision to extend the temporary protection at one of its upcoming sessions.

Read the full Press Release here

Source(s)

- European Council | Council of the European Union (13 June, 2025), [EU member states agree to extend temporary protection for refugees from Ukraine], https://www.consilium.europa.eu/en/press/press-releases/2025/06/13/eu-member-states-agree-to-extend-temporary-protection-for-refugees-from-ukraine/

Date of development
13.06.2025
Country
European Union
Thematic area(s)
Temporary Protection

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.

Development type
Policy

© European Union Agency for Asylum, 2026. Reproduction is authorised, provided the source is acknowledged.