New AMIF project - Border police training on the treatment of foreigners residing illegally in Croatia

On 22 May 2025, the Directorate for European Affairs, International Relations and EU Funds and the Ministry of the Interior of Croatia signed an agreement for the direct allocation of funds to implement the AMIF project "Training of Border Police Officers on the Treatment of Third-Country Nationals Illegally Staying in Croatia." The project aims to train border police officers in applying return procedures in line with EU and national legal standards. Seminars will equip participants with the necessary knowledge to ensure consistent and lawful practices.

The total project value is EUR 370,000 (including VAT), with 75% co-financed by the Asylum, Migration and Integration Fund (AMIF) and 25% covered by the State Budget.
