More than 600 beneficiaries receive assistance in integration efforts during the first four months of 2025

According to the General Inspectorate for Immigration, between 1 January and 30 April 2025, asylum specialists facilitated the participation of 624 individuals in the integration program. This program is designed to support the adaptation of beneficiaries of international protection and other categories of individuals to life in Romania. It offers services such as social counselling, access to education, medical care, and other essential support.
